

I'm not a robot

Where To Stay Whether it's the location, the ambience, the comfort of the bed, the five-star rating or the cleanliness that attracts you to a hotel, here's our highlight of Wellington's top hotels, including one that comes with its own gin lounge. So without further ado, here are the best hotels in Wellington. Best Cocktails, Naumi Wellington Best Heritage-Listed, TRYP by Wyndham Wellington Best Room Variety, Naumi Studio Hotel Wellington Best Complimentary Inclusions, The Intrepid Wellington Best Room Service, Mövenpick Hotel Wellington Best Pool & Spa, The InterContinental Wellington Best Design, QT Wellington Best Dining, Rydges Wellington Best Location, Ohtel Wellington Best Luxury Options, Sofitel Wellington Best Views, Oceanfront Penthouse Escape Best Nightlife, Oaks Wellington Hotel 10 Dunlop Street, Cuba Street, Wellington Naumi Wellington Opened in November 2022, Naumi Hotel Wellington is the glorious sister property to Naumi Studios also included in our round-up. Made up of 62 suites with huge floor-to-ceiling windows, sumptuous velvet, colourful accents and unique furnishings, this spot is the perfect Wellington pied-à-terre. I should also mention that this hotel has the largest TVs in NZ at 65" complete with access to all the streaming services should your stay call for a little Netflix and chill with room service. Mine always does. I recommend you to stay your way with a stop by Lola Rouge Bar for cocktails and a bite to eat to kick-start or even bookmark a great night out. Address: 10 Dunlop Street, Cuba Street, Wellington Price: $$$ 15 Tory Street, Te Aro, Wellington TRYP by Wyndham Wellington is a boujee four-star accommodation that will tick all your boxes. Opened in February 2023, this fully renovated heritage-listed building features 77 rooms which is a mix of hotel rooms, studio apartments and the largest luxury penthouse in central Wellington no less. Each room has its individual style and the hotel stays true to its Art Deco roots, with a nod to Old Chicago. I'm obsessed with the old-worldly feel in the heart of town. Address: 15 Tory Street, Te Aro, Wellington Price: $$$ 213 Cuba Street, Te Aro, Wellington Naumi Studio Hotel Wellington For the quintessential Wellington experience, you really can't go past Cuba Street, so why not stay smack-bang in the thick of it? Thanks to Naumi Studio Hotel Wellington, you can. Located in a lovingly restored and renovated heritage building, Naumi gives a nod to the past and embraces the future, making it one of the best hotels in Wellington. The dazzling new fit-out is bursting with personality, featuring works by local artists and designers, and sprinkled with creative touches inspired by Wellington. From the moment you set foot in the lobby, with its floral backdrop and giant pink flower sculpture, you'll feel like you've fallen down the rabbit hole into Wonderland. The colour and whimsy continue throughout the lounge bar, where you can cosy up in a plush armchair and sip on a cocktail or two while admiring the eclectic treasures on display. The parrot-green parlour is also an inviting space to sink a beverage, knock out some emails, or indulge in a spot of people-watching. To truly understand the Naumi vibe, be sure to ask the staff about Lady Naumi, the fictional custodian of the hotel—you'll see her mischievous grin beaming down over the front desk. Once you're ready to recharge your batteries, settle into one of the hotel's 116 rooms. There are six types to choose from, so whether you're after a cosy and cute studio or an extravagant suite, there's something for every style and budget. Address: 213 Cuba Street, Te Aro, Wellington Price: $$$ 60 Ghuznee Street, Te Aro, Wellington The Intrepid One of the newest kids on one of Wellington's coolest blocks, The Intrepid is a hotel for people who love travelling and are looking for somewhere more than just a place to get their mighty zzz's. Located in the buzzy Te Aro neighbourhood, a hop away from craft beer breweries and lively eateries, this is top-notch accommodation with a cool, urban edge. With just 18 rooms, the hotel is small but perfectly formed. Each room has been carefully curated to provide a memorable experience, with unique artwork and rugs, plush robes and premium New Zealand-made toiletries. These luxe features sit amongst shabby brick walls and exposed pipes, so you'll get the feeling you're in a trendy New York apartment. During my stay I discovered plenty of other thoughtful touches, including a delightful beverage station, with fresh-brewed cuppas by local legends Supreme Coffee and Libertine Tea, and complimentary baked treats each morning. There's also a nightly turndown service complete with a choccy on your pillow, naturally. It's the extra mile that puts this place on my books. After a day exploring the city, my pick's to cosy up for an evening tipple at The Puffin, a swanky wine bar specialising in interesting, natural wines. This hip haunt is located on the ground floor of the hotel, just an elevator ride from the comfort of your room. It will be tempting, but ditch the slippers. Address: 60 Ghuznee Street, Te Aro, Wellington Price: $$$ 345 The Terrace, Te Aro, Wellington Mövenpick Hotel Wellington Eat your heart out, luxury ice cream brand Mövenpick has its very own hotel in Wellington in late 2024 complete with a 24-hour in-room Sundae Service, and a daily 'Chocolate Hour' where you can watch experts craft cupcakes, chocolate truffles and other treats in the hotel lobby. Sandwiched between the scenic Wellington hills and Cuba Street, this is one hotel that is a must-stay for sweet tooths. Add to this a heated indoor lap pool, sauna and fitness centre—for you to burn off the sugar perhaps?—and this hotel has all the makings of an excellent stay regardless of whether you have little ones in tow. Who, by the way, get to smash free ice cream for the duration of their stay. Ye gods. Address: 89 Courtenay Place, Te Aro, Wellington Price: $$$ Things To Do Food & Drink 2 Grey Street, Wellington Central, Wellington The InterContinental If you're looking to explore the city on foot, I reckon this is the place for you to stay. Situated right off Lambton Quay, a stay at the five-star InterContinental gives you the city right on your doorstep—great for a business or shopping trip. The Intercontinental offers fantastic amenities including a club lounge, an indoor pool and spa as well as great dining options. Honestly, I hardly left the area during my stay. The InterContinental Wellington provides comfort for every visitor, and word on the street is it's the hotel of choice for our boys in black, as well as some other big-name guests. No wonder it's one of the best hotels in Wellington. Just moments from high-end shops, and Lambton Quay, you're uber close to all your shopping needs, as well as Parliament and other attractions too. The hotel's completely refurbished signature restaurant GPO is a must-try. GPO delivers diners a culinary 'souvenir' of intrepid travel, evoking memories of overseas holidays to faraway shores. Expect an array of dishes that explore rich spices, fresh herbs, and seasonal bounty, with smaller plates inspired by the renowned tapas and mezze of the Med as well as larger dishes including hand-rolled pasta, pasture-raised meats and locally grown organic produce. The impressive eatery, Two Grey Cafe & Eatery is only a stone's throw away and a must-try when in town. Editor's note: GPO Restaurant is closed from July 2025 through to early 2026. In the meantime, Two Grey Cafe, Bar & Eatery is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. The high brunch is worthy of a try. Address: 2 Grey Street, Wellington Central, Wellington Price: $$$ 90 Cable Street, Te Aro, Wellington QT Wellington Think thick carpets, dark mood lighting, luxe furniture and foliage the plant lover in your life would envy. QT Wellington's beautifully designed hotel is the place to stay for an exclusive and grand getaway. Art is the heart, soul and identity of the hotel and it boasts a large and perfectly curated collection of intricate paintings, quirky life-sized sculptures as well as other incredible art pieces QT Wellington has recently transformed its impressive lobby into the Gallery Lounge. Featuring a gallery of gins from hyper-local international, Gallery Lounge serves a menu of build-your-own gin and tonics, a rotation of gin cocktails and even play host to a daily Martini Hour. I am in! With art being the main focus of the hotel, they've paired with local artists to design unique rooms, meaning each has its own feel, look and vibe. All the rooms include a king bed, a deep-dish bath, a rain shower and of course fluffy white robes. QT also offers its guests a leisure centre complete with a jacuzzi, sauna and a 70m lap pool, making it one of the absolute best hotels in the city. If that's not enough for you, QT is also proudly home to one of Wellington's top restaurants, Hippopotamus, which regularly offers high tea and themed food events to incorporate what's happening in Wellington. Large windows look out over the waterfront, making it the perfect place for an early evening beverage. Address: 90 Cable Street, Te Aro, Wellington Price: $$$ 75 Featherston Street, Pipitea, Wellington Rydges Wellington No trip to Wellington would be complete without stepping off a windswept street and being far too glad to step inside, and the Rydges Wellington welcomes you in with warm and open arms. The CBD location of the hotel is perfect for people looking to be amongst it all in the city centre, and with the high-rise factor, you'll be spoilt with killer views over the entire Wellington waterfront and harbour. Rydges offers simplistic and comfortable rooms with all the necessary amenities, though with Wellington right on your doorstep, I spent most of my stay exploring the city. As the hotel is in the bustle of it all, the Rydges poses as the perfect stay-over for business and leisure travellers alike. The first thing I noticed when I entered the hotel were the dark carpets and a grand staircase in the centre of the lobby. The decor gave me old-school Titanic vibes, and the dapper theme continues through into the restaurant. I am obsessed. Rydges is home to Portlander restaurant. A contemporary restaurant visited and enjoyed by visitors and locals alike. This is the restaurant the steak lover in your life will want to eat at. They boast a fine selection of locally hunted, prime cut and dry-aged meats, and there's a well-stocked bar with over 100 whiskeys for you to try out. I'm a big fan of the Glenkinchie 12 year old from the lowlands, with its soft and mild presence. I am saying that to sound fancy but truth is, the team clued me up on what to look for with my palate. Show interest and they'll give you some insights too. Address: 75 Featherston Street, Pipitea, Wellington Price: $$$ 66 Oriental Parade, Oriental Bay, Wellington Ohtel Wellington Nestled in between Oriental Bay's rows of houses, you may mistake the luxury abode Ohtel Wellington for a sweet and humble cafe. Stepping inside you'll find a boutique hotel complete with all the trimmings. While the hotel might be small, it definitely doesn't lack in quality. The mid-century interior features are complimented by bright and open spaces and I just love how much light fills this place. Possibly the best location on the list in my opinion, Ohtel is situated on the town end of Oriental Bay, close to all major attractions. You're only minutes from Te Papa, many theatres, Oriental Bay Beach and a number of delightful bars, restaurants and cafes. You're situated right at the bottom of Mount Vic, a perfect location to people (and dog!) watch, as well as visit the Sunday market. With the likes of Ortega Fish Shack and Capitol just around the corner, you'll never be far from some of the city's top restaurants and best food. Address: 66 Oriental Parade, Oriental Bay, Wellington Price: $$$ 11 Bolton Street, Wellington Central, Wellington Sofitel Wellington The Sofitel Wellington is the epitome of luxury accommodation within the city and one of the best hotels in Wellington in my opinion. The French-inspired elegance and gold accents and features really make you feel the quality you're amongst. From classic rooms right through to their Prestige and Opera suites, the Sofitel has accommodation for any kind of traveller and no matter who you are, you'll love the location. Close to everything Wellington has to offer, you're right in the city centre, yet somehow tucked amongst lush greenery (that's my favourite bit). As well as a beautiful hotel and rooms, the Sofitel boasts two intimately designed restaurants and bars, the La Serre Lounge and the luxurious Jardin Grill (yes, you can order $180 worth of caviar, but you can also taste handrolled gnocchi with kaffir-infused coconut cream, so it's a real mixed bag). The luxury and quiet outdoor courtyard area is my favourite place to enjoy a wine or two in a setting that perfectly encapsulates elegant and casual dining. Address: 11 Bolton Street, Wellington Central, Wellington Price: $$$ Houghton Bay Oceanfront Penthouse Escape If you fancy some incredible views and your very own penthouse to call home during your stay, this lovely Airbnb is sure to keep you happy. Situated on the waters of Houghton Bay, the accommodation is just a 15-minute walk to the Island Bay shopping village, where you'll find plenty of restaurants, cafes, a supermarket, and even a boutique cinema. When I stumbled upon this location, I saw the area in a whole new light despite being a local. With the airport across the water, it's a great place for a drink and a bit of plane spotting. With a balcony to watch the sunrise, this is the perfect stay for romantic getaways—far from the bustle of the city centre, you'll be treated to uninterrupted views over the ocean. It's the perfect staycation or vacay spot and my pick to feel worlds away. Address: Houghton Bay (exact address revealed upon booking) Price: $$ 89 Courtenay Place, Te Aro, Wellington Oaks Wellington Hotel The Oaks Wellington Hotel is a fresh gem on Courtenay Place and with everything Wellington has to offer just a stone's throw away, the location is fantastic for all kinds of travellers. Whether you're a night owl looking to enjoy Courtenay place's vibrant nightlife or visiting the city for a creative and culture-packed trip, you couldn't get closer to the action. During my stay I felt spoilt for sipping choice with the many bars right on the doorstep, or it's just a short stroll to the heart of Wellington's creative hub, Cuba street—packed with some of the coolest little shops. The hotel sits in a historic 1920s building and has been refurbished to offer simple and clean, well-designed, modern hotel and apartment-style rooms complete with soft furnishings and cool blue tones. Find that feeling of ultimate relaxation at the newly opened on-site restaurant, Oaks and Vine. The menu is designed for sharing and you'll find a number of drool-worthy plates and platters with a kiwi-Mediterranean influence. Address: 89 Courtenay Place, Te Aro, Wellington Price: $$$. Main image credit: The Bar and Parlour at Naumi Studio Hotel Wellington Urban List Best Of: has our highest stamp of approval—curated lists of the very best recommendations for you to eat, do, see, buy or book, carefully chosen by our Editors. Urban List editors independently select and write about stuff we love and think you'll like too. Urban List has affiliate partnerships, and if you purchase something through the links in this article, we will earn a commission from those partners. To find out more about who we work with and why read our editorial policy here. If you're looking for a cheap hotel in Wellington, you should consider visiting during the low season. You'll find cheaper accommodations in Wellington in April and January. Hotel room prices vary depending on many factors but you'll most likely find the best hotel deals in Wellington if you stay on a Sunday. The opposite is true for Friday, which is usually the most expensive day. The cheapest 3-star hotel room in Wellington found on KAYAK in the last 2 weeks was $29, while the most expensive was $388. How long should you stay? KAYAK users usually book their accommodation in Wellington for 2 days. When you visit Wellington, consider staying at the Rydges Wellington, a luxury hotel in the heart of the city. The rooms have splendid views of the city as well as of the harbour. It is walking distance to Lambton Quay, Westpac Stadium, government buildings and the railway station. The Botanical Gardens, Te Papa Museum and the cable car are no more than a 5-minute walk away. They have the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels like the Distinction Wellington's most iconic building, the Art Deco Te Papa Tongarewa. The hotel is a short walk from the cable car and the central business district. If you would like to stay at a hotel close to outdoor activities, then consider staying at the Bolton Hotel in central Wellington. You can rent bicycles at a nearby shop, or go sailing, hiking or biking along the trails, golfing, kayaking, partake in an ecotour or go surfing, just to name a few of your recreational options. InterContinental Wellington, located by the harbor waterfront, has the Emerge Health club with an indoor heated pool, a spa, sauna and various massage options. Another similar property is the James Hook Hotel Grand Chancellor, also centrally located in Wellington, which has an on-site gym, spa and yoga classes. Park Hotel Lambton Quay is a centrally located hotel in Wellington that is wheelchair accessible. The upper floors can be reached by a lift. Sofitel Wellington, close to the Beehive, is another wheelchair accessible hotel with a lift to access the upper floors. It also has rooms with accessible bathrooms and a roll-in shower. Hotels